menALIVE to the MAX is a National Catholic Gathering of men. After several years of almost no live events, we are looking forward to gathering together to ... listen, learn and long for the fullness of life. We desire to grow into the men we were made to be - better husbands, fathers, and men of God.

This weekend we are embarking on some Formation around the Mass. Each week, we'll be hearing the wisdom of the Archbishop explain different parts of Mass. I hope you find these helpful.

Baptismal Joy!!

This weekend we welcome with great joy three new members of Christ's faithful people:

Thomas Gecks, son of Christopher and Kristina Gecks; Walter Thompson, son of Joel and Elizabeth Thompson and Harrison Beckman, son of Timothy and Chelsea Beckman. May they always know God's love and the support of this Christian Community.

Peter's Pence Collection

Each year parishes in the Archdiocese of Brisbane take up the Peter's Pence collection as a retiring collection. The collection is to be taken at the Masses the weekend around the Feast of Sts Peter and Paul. Therefore, this year's collection will be taken up this weekend 25/26 June.

The collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the neediest throughout the world, to offer timely, effective, emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters.

Cathedral Seminar- "People of Spirit and Eucharist"

In 2022, our team is hosting 4 seminars to reflect on aspects of the Catholic faith, and to consider how that might be incorporated into our daily lives.

Our second seminar is coming up on Thursday the 30th June (7-8.30pm) with Deacon Peter Pellican (Executive Director, Evangelisation Brisbane) as our guest speaker for the first half of the evening. The second half will be led by Shane Dwyer (Associate Director for Adult Formation).

Hanly Room, Francis Rush Centre, 196 Charlotte Street. Refreshments will be available from 6.30. Seated by 7pm.

The recording of this seminar is available to purchase (on the same link below) should you be interested but unable to attend on the night.

To register, head to:

FUTURE OF THE PARISH

Thanks to all those who were able to attend our "Future of the Parish" consultations in person or online. These meetings were an important step forward as we consider our future and look to carry out the mission of Christ in our region.

Hard copies of both the 'Let Us Dream' document as well as the survey are available at the entrance of the Church.

We invite you to read through the document so that you can engage in the process. A key part of this process is hearing from as many of our parishioners as possible. To this end, once you've read through the document, we invite you to fill out a short survey which can be found here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/D3CKCCK>.

This survey will remain open until Sunday 10 July. We will look to collate the feedback in the weeks that follow and then announce a follow up meeting that will provide the opportunity to take further steps forward.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Today we consider some of the personal difficulties we might have to face as disciples. First, there is no part-time discipleship. Our commitment must be wholehearted and complete. We must have a willing attitude that frees us interiorly from all other concerns so that we might be able to follow Christ regardless of our state in life or our occupation. This attitude of commitment comes not merely from our own generosity of heart but from our having been transformed into Christ through faith and baptism.

We may face conflicts when our various allegiances seem to clash. We may have family responsibilities. There are children to raise, elderly parents or infirm relatives to care for. What does discipleship require of us? We all must earn a living. Are we expected to leave our employment to follow Jesus? And if so, what then will we do? All disciples must face the interior struggle caused by the conflict of legitimate responsibilities.

The freedom of which Paul speaks comes with genuine love. If, out of love, we can negotiate successfully these conflicts caused by competing responsibilities, without compromising our total commitment to Christ, we will find a new kind freedom. This is the freedom that enables us to be faithful to both sets of responsibilities according to the proper priority. We will see that commitment to Christ is primary and the circumstances of our lives with the accompanying responsibilities set the parameters within which we live out our commitment. It is not in opposition with these responsibilities or despite them, but by means of or through them that we live out our discipleship.

PRAYER FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE IN UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
who change the hardened heart
and break the power of violence,
we entrust the people of Ukraine to you.

Protect them in this time of peril;
let them know not death but life,
not slavery but freedom.

You are Father of all;
we are brothers and sisters.

Give us the strength
to live that truth in love,
choosing peace not war.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
