Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 17 July 2022

Hi all,

Welcome back to the families, teachers and staff back from their holidays.

Thank you again to all those who have submitted their survey feedback from the Let us Dream document. Stay tuned for our next community meeting to discuss the ways forward.

*** Here's a final update on the Second Assembly of the Plenary Council that concluded last Saturday. On Thursday July 7, a revised version of Part 4 of the Motions and Amendments document was released entitled "Witnessing to the Equal Dignity of Women and Men". You can read the amended document here: Part 4 REVISED JULY 7 2022.pdf - Google Drive

Did you know that Australia throws away 1 billion takeaway coffee cups every year?

St Agatha's Clayfield student entrepreneurs have partnered with 'Good Edi' to create GRATITUDE CUPS. These biodegradable takeaway coffee cups can be eaten, planted or thrown away after use. The student entrepreneur group at St Agatha's are selling these cups which have special messages of gratitude written by the students on the paper sleeve via: www.daintreemarketplace.com.au

A percentage of the profits are going towards the St Vincent de Paul Flood Appeal.

Daintree Marketplace: The Daintree Marketplace is a space where students can open and run their own shops. It's a space to learn and earn about entrepreneurship and for the community to support their efforts. If you are a Student, click on the Join Our Business Community to open your shop! Come on in and get started. www.daintreemarketplace.com.au

NEW CHILDREN AND FAMILIES PASTORAL ASSOCIATE

We welcome Sandra Cantarutti to our Parish who will lead our ministry to Children and Families. This will include Children's Liturgy at the 9am Mass during term time, coordination of our sacramental program, and a primary school youth group which will kick off in Term 4.

Let's welcome Sandra!

FUTURE OF THE PARISH

The survey is now closed. We are looking forward to collating the feedback in the weeks that follow and then announce a follow up meeting that will provide the opportunity to take further steps forward. If you have a hard copy survey to still hand in, please email or drop it off to the Parish Office as soon as possible. Thank you.

Baptismal Joy!!

This weekend we welcome with great joy five new members of Christ's faithful people: Olivia Prak, daughter of Somrith and Sarem Prak; Henry Green, son of Stephen and Alexis Green; Darcy Carr, son of Elliot Carr and Emily Plucknett; Saxon Orola, son of Ivan and Natalie Orola and Jackson Epiha, son of Patrick Epiha and Karen Landers. May they always know God's love and the support of this Christian Community.

Please note - Scam Alert

Scams via email are prolific at present and we would caution all parishioners to not respond to any email from anyone claiming to be a representative of our parish asking for money, cash cards or verification of financial details. Our Clergy would never seek to contact you in this way, or require of you that you provide them with cash or store cards to get them out of a bind.

PRAYER FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE IN UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
who change the hardened heart
and break the power of violence,
we entrust the people of Ukraine to you.

Protect them in this time of peril;
let them know not death but life,
not slavery but freedom.

You are Father of all;
we are brothers and sisters.

Give us the strength
to live that truth in love,
choosing peace not war.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Today we see the people of God offering the hospitality rather than receiving it, first Abraham and then Martha. What lessons of discipleship can be learned from these readings?

First and foremost we see how important openness is, for in each case those to whom the hospitality was offered were divine visitors in human form. We can never be sure under what guise God will come to us. It could be the person on the street who asks for directions, or the one who comes to our place of work to engage the service that we provide. It may be the friend who comes to dinner or the co-worker who acts in a way we did not expect. God comes into our lives in unexpected ways and we must have an open attitude of hospitality if we are to receive the blessings that might come with such visits.

We know that we cannot lay aside the responsibilities of our lives in order to sit with Mary at the feet of Jesus. However, we cannot allow ourselves to be held captive by these responsibilities, regardless of how legitimate they may be. And so we continue to struggle; to carry the burdens that are ours for the sake of the people that we serve; to serve the people in our care realising that we will probably not be able to accomplish all of our tasks or at least as well as we would like. It is in this way that the reign of God struggles to be born. © Dianne Bergant CSA

It is no accident that this story about Martha and Mary immediately follows the parable of the Good Samaritan. We must remember that Jesus is portrayed as telling that parable as clarification of the law to love God and love neighbour. The Samaritan provides an example of what it means to love one's neighbour whilst in this story, Mary provides an example of what it means to love God. Together, the two stories tell us that compassionate service to one's neighbour is crucial but that God does not require service, simply love.
