Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time 25 June 2023 (Year A)

Hi all,

Remember this week coming up is the Presbyterial Ordination of the three transitional Deacons. Thursday 29th July, 7pm @ St Stephen's Cathedral. You are all welcome to join them in this beautiful sacrament live or via webcast - <https://brisbanecatholic.org.au/multimedia/web-cast-schedule/>. Keep Gerard, Isaac and Minje in your prayers to strengthen their faith to serve the church of Brisbane as pastoral leaders. The Feast of St Peter and St Paul (29th June) is a traditional date for the Ordination of Priests. These two Saints demonstrate a unity in the mission to proclaim truthfully the Gospel to the world and the personal differences in the way they served, evangelized and lead the Christian community. St Peter's mission was to the Jews and St Paul's was to the gentiles – a broader audience. Both missions are equally important but not opposed. There is a wonderful sense of order and diversity that these two giants of Christianity remind us to be. Each one of us the baptized are called to serve, whether through being single, married, being a priest or a religious brother or sister.

The Archbishop has launched a year of celebration for the 150th anniversary of the Opening and Blessing of the Cathedral of St. Stephen. There will be a number of celebrations throughout the next twelve months.

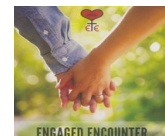

This month of June we will be celebrating the story of Ordinations in the Cathedral. Parishioners are invited to attend 10am Mass on Wednesday, June 28th, at the Cathedral as we celebrate and acknowledge all those who have been ordained in the Cathedral throughout its history. Archbishop Coleridge will preside and refreshments will be provided afterwards. Come along and give thanks for the gift of service of the ordained ministers of our local church.
